

The Camel Race

The one whose camel is slower wins.

Upon receiving the advice, they jump on the camels and race to the city as fast as they can.

So the king gives his two sons a challenge.

What did the wise man say to them?

He tells them to race their camels to a distant city.

Two Arabian princes would like to inherit their father's kingdom.

Not wanting to be the fastest, the brothers wander around aimlessly.

After many days, they finally ask a wise man for guidance.

Write your answer:

The Desert

Both of them are wearing backpacks.

Two men are in the desert.

The man with the full pack is dead.

The other man's backpack is empty.

How did he die?

One has a full backpack.
