

The Murder

One day, John and Paul go out to see a movie.

When they return, Ringo is dead!

George is sitting in the corner looking very guilty.

Why not?

He is lying on the floor in a puddle of water and a broken glass.

It is obvious that he killed Ringo, but he won't be punished.

John, Paul, George and Ringo all live in the same house.

Write your answer:

The Three Rooms

The first room is full of raging fires.

He is convicted and sentenced to death.

The third room is full of lions that haven't eaten in three years.

A man is captured for a heinous murder.

The second room is full of assassins with loaded guns.

She explains that he must choose between three rooms.

The judge allows him to choose the method of his capital punishment.

Which room should he choose?

Write your answer:

The Murder

2	One day, John and Paul go out to see a movie.
3	When they return, Ringo is dead!
5	George is sitting in the corner looking very guilty.
7	Why not?
4	He is lying on the floor in a puddle of water and a broken glass.
6	It is obvious that he killed Ringo, but he won't be punished.
1	John, Paul, George and Ringo all live in the same house.

Note: Have students ask you yes/no questions in order to solve the riddle. eg: Is George famous? Does George hate Ringo? etc.

Answer:

*George is a cat and Ringo is a fish.
The water and broken glass are from the fish bowl that George knocked over.*

The Three Rooms

5	The first room is full of raging fires.
2	He is convicted and sentenced to death.
7	The third room is full of lions that haven't eaten in three years.
1	A man is captured for a heinous murder.
6	The second room is full of assassins with loaded guns.
4	She explains that he must choose between three rooms.
3	The judge allows him to choose the method of his capital punishment.
8	Which room should he choose?

Note: Have students discuss in pairs or groups. Then have them explain their answer.

Answer:

*The third room.
The lions are all dead because they haven't eaten in three years.*