

The Runner

Then he turned left again,
running faster than ever.

After a short time, he turned left
and continued running.

So he stopped
and ran back the other way.

In the distance,
he could see a masked man
waiting for him at home.

He turned left once more
and headed home.

A man left home
running as fast as he could.

Who is the masked man?

Write your answer:

The Visitors

Suddenly, the doorbell rings.

They are here for breakfast.

It's 5:00am and you are sound asleep.

Unexpected visitors are here.

What is the first thing you open?

They are your parents.

You have strawberry jam,
honey, wine, bread and cheese.

Write your answer:

The Runner

3

He turned left again,
running faster than ever.

2

After a short time, he turned left
and continued running.

6

So he stopped
and ran back the other way.

5

In the distance,
he could see a masked man
waiting for him at home.

4

He turned left once more
and headed home.

1

A man left home
running as fast as he could.

7

Who is the masked man?

Note: Have students ask you yes/no questions in order to solve the riddle. eg: Do the men know each other? Is the man scared? etc.

Answer:

The catcher.

The men are playing baseball.

The Visitors

2

Suddenly, the doorbell rings.

5

They are here for breakfast.

1

It's 5:00am and you are sound asleep.

3

Unexpected visitors are here.

7

What is the first thing you open?

4

They are your parents.

6

You have strawberry jam,
honey, wine, bread and cheese.

Note: After your students answer, tell them that it was a very good choice but your parents are still waiting outside. They should realize that they need to open the door. But that is still not the right answer. If they still can't get the answer, have them imagine they are still in bed sleeping.

Answer:

Your eyes. (Then the door.)