Questions:

Can you guess what the proverbs mean?
Do you agree with the proverbs?
Can you give some examples of situations where you might use the proverbs?

Definitions:

A watched pot never boils.

If you wait anxiously for something to happen, it seems to take a very long time
There's no point sitting by the phone waiting for it to ring. A watched pot never boils.

Bad news travels fast.

Bad news usually reaches us more quickly than good news.
I called my aunt to tell her about my car accident, but my mom had already told her. Bad news travels fast.

You can't judge a book by its cover.

You cannot judge the quality or character of someone or something just by looking at them.
She doesn't look very smart but you can't judge a book by its cover.

Don't cry over spilled milk. / It's no use crying over spilled milk.

Do not be upset about making a mistake, since you cannot change that now.
*OK, so you lost the book I lent you. Don't cry over spilled milk.
I know you don't like your new haircut, but you can't change it now. It's no use crying over spilled milk.*
