

PROVERB PUZZLE #4

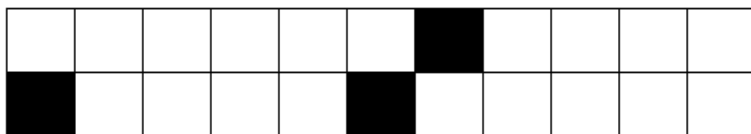

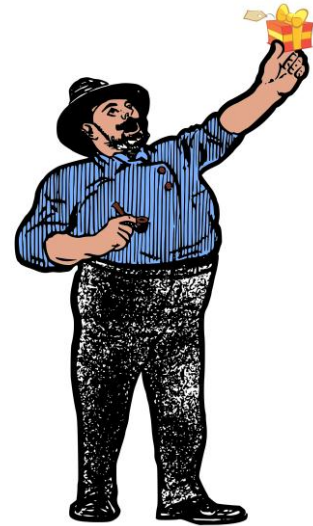

L L K K E F S T N E R
I I E A O H

M H D I B E E E
T A E I C I N R
L E U G H T S T
S

T P A C E S B A O L E
H I H G S G C L M
I N K A M E S T
T N E S

B E H A E R N E A E E
T T T N L V T R

PROVERB PUZZLE#4

Answers:

Like father, like son.

Laughter is the best medicine.

The best things come in small packages.

Better late than never.

Questions:

Can you guess what the proverbs mean?

Do you agree with the proverbs?

Can you give some examples of situations where you might use the proverbs?

Definitions:

Like father, like son.

Fathers and sons resemble each other, and sons tend to do what their fathers did before them.

Dad: Who wants to go fishing? Son: I do! I love fishing! Mom: Like father, like son.

My father is a lawyer, I'm a lawyer, and my son is in law school. Like father, like son.

Laughter is the best medicine.

It is good for your physical and mental health to laugh.

You always make me feel better – you're so funny! It's like they say, laughter's the best medicine.

The best things come in small packages. / Good things come in small packages.

Small packages often contain valuable things.

Child: I hate being so short. Mother: You shouldn't. The best things come in small packages.

I'm upset at John. He only gave me this tiny box for my birthday. Jane: Don't get upset till you know what's in it. Good things come in small packages.

Better late than never.

Doing something late is better than not doing it.

I'm sorry I'm late to the party. Better late than never, right?

John: Lisa's birthday was two weeks ago. Should I send her a card now? Jane: Better late than never.