

PROVERB PUZZLE#6

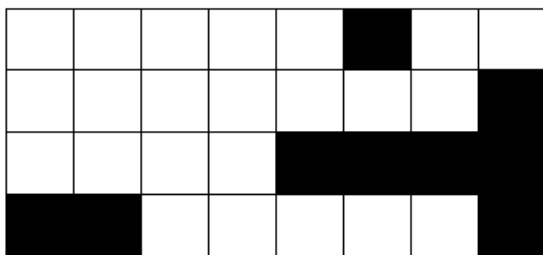

B I R H E C A A C L E
 T H E E O R H Y S
 T D W T R M

M A H A N C E M D
 T O L I N G O N D
 T S L G S O E
 U T S

A C T H A N D E O P D A K
 T I O N S W R R E S
 L O U S

B H A A D E I S
 T H I C K E R
 T L O N T R
 W O

PROVERB PUZZLE#6

Answers:

The early bird catches the worm.
All good things must come to an end.
Actions speak louder than words.
Blood is thicker than water.

Questions:

Can you guess what the proverbs mean?
Do you agree with the proverbs?
Can you give some examples of situations where you might use the proverbs?

Definitions:

The early bird catches the worm.

If you start something early, you stand a better chance of success.

John: What are you doing in the office at 7:30 A.M.? Jane: The early bird catches the worm.

All good things must (come to an) end.

All experiences, even pleasant ones, eventually end.

It's time to leave the party, honey. All good things must end.

We've had a lovely visit, but all good things must come to an end.

Actions speak louder than words.

What you do is more important than what you say.

You have made many promises but you haven't done anything. Remember that actions speak louder than words.

Blood is thicker than water. / Blood runs thicker than water.

Family members have stronger obligations to each other than to others.

My friends invited me to go camping on Saturday, but I have to go to my cousin's wedding instead. Blood is thicker than water, after all.

If you ever need to borrow money, don't ask your friends. Come home and ask us, your family. Blood runs thicker than water.